The Elections Tuesday and the Results.

The favorable aspect of the election news yesterday is fully sustained, and in Ohio increased, by later intelligence. In Nebraska, despite the divisions and personal squabbles, the Republicans make a clean sweep, electing State ticket, Congressmen and Legislature. The report from Iowa still deals in details not general results; but all know what the results are in Iowa. In Indiana the State tickets and Legislature are closely contested, and the official figures may be necessary to determine the result. In Ohio the Republican State ticket is elected by a large majority. Last year Hayes' majority was 7,518. Indications are that Sherman, Secretary of State, is elected by from 10,000 to 20,000 majority. Pennsylvania has elected another Republican Legislature, a little stronger than the last. Concerning the Congressional delegations in the three States last named, we believe the following lists are as nearly correct as they can now be made. They show those whose election is considered certain and indicate where districts are still in doubt.

Mr. Bingham's District.

A dispatch from Mr. BINGHAM (at Cadiz), received yesterday morning, in answer to an inquiry, states that his majority in Harrison is about 525. This is a gain of 77 over his vote in 1868. He also says he has large gains in Tuscarawas, which gave 600 Democratic majority for his opponent two years ago. Belmont reports a majority for CHAMBERS of 297. Two years ago its majority for BINGHAM was 380. This is a Republican gain of 68. A gentleman who came in on the Central Ohio road last evening reported that Guernsey gives BINGHAM a majority of 550, against 535 two years ago. Other reports from out the Central road estimate BINGHAM's majority in Noble, the remaining county of the district, at from 300 to 350. Say we take the lowest figure, allowing BINGHAM no gains in Tuscarawas and giving CHAMBERS ESTATE's majority in 1868 in that county, we summarize the district thus:

BINGHAM'S MAJORITY.
Harrison	525
Belmont	297
Tuscarawas	600
Noble	300-350
CHAMBERS' MAJORITY.
Guernsey	297

Another Petty Fraud.

The readers of the Register yesterday doubtless observed that in the telegraphic reports of election returns the words "negro vote" frequently appeared after Republican majorities or gains. There was nothing to show that these words were written in by the editor; and the reader would infer they were sent by telegraph as an explanation of the news. These words did not come by telegraph. The Register got precisely the same report we did and they were not in ours. They were interpolated by the editor to misrepresent the fact and deceive, just as the famous LAMB letter was written for a like purpose. This property to literary fraud seems to be largely developed in our neighbor. We hope it may never lead him into inextricable difficulties.

The Ohio Election—Comments of the Cincinnati Papers of Yesterday.

From the Gazette.
We have done well in Ohio. A year ago we worried the State by a majority of 100,000 over the Democrats. At the hour we write—A. M.—it looks as if the State was ours this year by a majority of 150,000. Republicans everywhere ought to be, will be, satisfied with the result. Considering the fact that it is the off year, remembering that the campaign has been conducted in more anxiety and less success than in usual years, and that the Republicans are still true to the principles they stood by during the war, and as is prepared to defend them now as then, it gives her emphatic and powerful endorsement to the administration of General Grant, and rebukes with a sternness none can fail to understand the plottings of the revolutionists who would reopen all the issues of the war had settled. Well done for the old Commonwealth!

From the Commercial.
The confused and partial returns indicate no more than that the vote is light as compared with that of 1868, and that the majority for the Republican State ticket will be between 150,000 and 200,000. It may fall below or exceed these figures.

So far as Congress is concerned, the Republicans have carried the First, Second, Fourth, Seventh, Eighth, Tenth, Eleventh, Fourteenth, Fifteenth, Sixteenth, and of course the Seventeenth, Eighteenth and Nineteenth Districts.

The returns from the Third District, at this writing, leaves the result in doubt. Campbell's majority in Montgomery and Butler, is estimated at 2,300, including the townships not heard from, and giving Campbell the benefit of Pendleton's majorities in them last year. In Preble, the majority for Schenck is put at 700 in round numbers. This would leave a majority of 1,600 to overcome in Warren. It gave Schenck over Vallandigham in 1868 a majority of 1,435, and Hayes, in 1869, over Pendleton, a majority of 1,400. If Warren is carried for the Republican candidate by the majority of 1868, Schenck is elected. If his majority is no more than that of 1868, he is defeated; that is, assuming the returns we have from Montgomery and Butler to be correct.

As to the Sixth District, the major returns are favorable to Smith. London withdrew on the eve of the election, but in favor of Denver.

The action of those who supported him. If they refuse to be carried over to the Democratic side, Smith is elected. One thing however is sure, in any event—Colonel London has wound up his bobbin more rapidly than any politician we know of, and if he has political aspirations, he shall reckon the day that he has gone Democratic.

To sum up, the Republicans have carried thirteen districts in the State certainly, and the Democrats three, with the Third, Sixth and Ninth in doubt.

P. S.—Since writing the above a later dispatch announces Campbell's election in the Third district by a small majority. Warren county not coming up to work properly. Conceding this the Ninth and the Sixth to the Democrats, the representation in the next Congress will stand, Republicans 13, Democrats 6, or the same as now.

From the Register.

Defeated Again.

As indicated by our very meager dispatches, the State of Ohio has been carried by the Republicans by at least a thousand majority. There is a general falling off of the vote of both parties, but it is evident that a lack of organization under the part of the Democracy and negro vote has done the work. We have gained only one Congressman, so far as we are to judge, and that is Denver, in the Sixth District.

While the result of the election yesterday in this county and the First and Second Congressional Districts is anything but favorable, it is gratifying to know that there is a prospect of a victory in the
